

Chapter Leadership Structure

Wellbeing Representative

The Wellbeing Representative has the responsibility of working with the Chapter on matters of social justice and staff welfare.

This role is for you if:

- You are passionate about unionism
- You have a strong commitment to social justice
- You believe that health and safety is crucial in a workplaces
- You are comfortable speaking with members who are experiencing stressful work conditions
- You are able to keep the confidences of members who share their stories with you

Activities include:

- Speaking to staff about becoming a member of their union
- Being an information source for staff who are nervous that they are experiencing burnout in the workplace
- Being a point of contact for staff needing information as they believe they may be experiencing bullying or harassment in the workplace
- Ensuring that your workplace has a health and safety committee
- Working with all members of the chapter executive on creating and maintaining a strong workplace culture
- Liaising with the Chapter Representative on any matters that may be dealt with by the chapter collectively

Training available:

- Bullying and Harassment training
- Wellbeing, Burnout and Self Care in Education
- Wellbeing Representative Training (TBD)

Relevant committee for membership/resource development:

- Equity Committee

CONTACT OUR UNION FOR SUPPORT

Email: enquiries@ieuqnt.org.au
Freecall: 1800 177 937 Phone: (07) 3839 7020
Online: www.ieuqnt.org.au