

VOTE NO

VOTING NO means rejecting an inadequate and outdated agreement proposed by C&K.

VOTING NO tells C&K that staff deserve similar working conditions to others in the education sector.

VOTING NO means C&K must return to the bargaining table and continue negotiating with our union.

Why C&K's agreement is outdated:

- ✗ No guarantee wages will match public sector
- ✗ No additional release time for Directors
- ✗ No real action on workload
- ✗ No changes to outdated paid parental leave
- ✗ No changes to 10 year long service leave access
- ✗ No matching of public sector superannuation
